CONTRIBUTED PHOTO

The Norwalk Education Foundation received a $25,000 grant from the Fairfield County Community Foundation for Norwalk Public School's After the Bell program. The before- and after-school program offers elementary school children academic support and a variety of activities, including math games, puzzles, knitting and cooking. There are 150 children at Kendall and Rowayton elementary schools enrolled in the program. The FCCF, based in Norwalk, promotes the growth of community and regional philanthropy to improve the quality of life in Fairfield County. Visit www.fccfnd.com. The NEF is a nonprofit dedicated to improving education for Norwalk schoolchildren. Visit www.norwalkeducation.org.
